Why this program, why now?

Artificial Intelligence is transforming how we learn, train, and work. But while tools evolve fast, most organizations still lack experts who can translate knowledge into scalable, digital-first learning systems.

This program prepares you to lead that shift. You'll learn to design, license, and deliver AI-powered solutions that solve real business problems—while building your own scalable consulting practice.

Whether you're an educator, coach, or learning strategist, this certification equips you to become a trusted advisor in a market demanding transformation.

“You won't just learn theory. You'll build your toolkit, shape your brand, and launch a ready-to-sell offer—powered by AI and designed for impact.”

— Dr. Reggie R. Padin, Program Director
